THE ITALIAN REFUGEE

and the Spanish House. A novel by the author of 'The English House.'

The story of a young Italian nobleman, who, having fled from his native land, is forced to seek refuge in the courts of foreign princes. The narrative is filled with scenes of intrigue and action, as the hero strives to win back his inheritance and achieve his rightful place in society.

The book is a fine example of its genre, and has been praised for its vivid descriptions and well-drawn characters. It is a must-read for any lover of historical fiction.